INTERNATIONAL TALENT ACADEMY ARTS FACTS

Our mission is to develop confidence, creativity, and capabilities in every child. We empower students to discover their unique talents and accelerate cognitive development through internationally inspired performing arts programs. We strive to create an organization that shows families the value and benefits of music and theater education. The goal of our programs is to maximize the potential of young children and to build a new generation of leaders, creators, and contributors.

IMPACT POINTS

900% savings by funding after school programs.

For every $1 spent on after school programs, a community can save up to $9 on reduced costs for welfare and crime prevention.

Students who participate in the arts are 40% more likely to have diverse friends.

Participation in arts activities increases tolerance. 12th graders who participate in the arts are 40% more likely to have friends from different racial groups and 29% less likely to feel that it is ok to make a racist remark.

Students who participate in the arts are 5x less likely to drop out.

Students excited by school stay in school. Low-income students who participate in the arts, both in school and after school have a drop out rate of just 4%--5x lower than their peers.

The arts improve your critical thinking by up to 18%.

Just looking at art improves your ability to think critically. Students from high-poverty schools, according to one study, experience an 18% effect-size improvement in critical thinking about art after a 1 hour tour of a museum.

Arts-engaged kids average 100 points higher on their SAT.

Students who take four years of arts and music classes average almost 100 points better on their SAT scores than students with only a half-year or less.

Available after school arts programs cause neighborhood crime to drop up to 5%.

Arts programs reduce crime levels. Participation in afterschool arts programs causes juvenile crime to fall by 4.2% on average, and slightly more (5.4%) in lower-income cities.
